

Keep Indiana Privacy law as is. Do no weaken to allow banks to call us at home over the dinner hour (or any other time). The current law is working great and should not be weakened.